Cheers, EMELINE

We just registered excellfair.com, excellfair.org, excellfair.uk, excellfair.com, excellfair.org & excellfair.uk - If Niomatic I/S is interested to use this name instead of Selldone, let us know. We didn't want to risk that this name would be registered by someone other than Us.

Do you like Our Logoldea We sent, Allison?

Yes that is nice.

Hi ■

Thanks ■

We went back to The Drawing Board and discovered a new Name, momentarily if you like in stead of Selldone.

We were thinking again, what it's about, for Niomatic too and more for your Clients and even more for the Clients of your Clients.

In Our opinion, the name Selldone is another Commercial name like Shopify, WooCommerce & BigCommerce.

As soon as visitors to their' Clients shops visit and see that in the footer of the site... what do you think The Public Community thinks of it?

It's about Commerce... "they want to try to sell me something".

Coming back to something We mentioned earlier, is that when people come over to visit, they don't like "sales talk" they like "friendly conversation", agree?'

It took some searching and to Our Surprise there was a .com/.org/.UK Name available. We tried to combine it with Business Operating System™ and Business OS™.

All adult People even younger than that too, try to accomplish things in order to feel GOOD!!

What is the chance that a person opens up to a sales person about what they genuinely try to accomplish?

They would prefer to keep that for themselves and discuss these matters with their close friends.

What do People tell people whom are salesy in their approach?

For example what these People think they need &/or could use.

A friend may say... no... I don't agree that's what you need &/or could use most... What may really benefit you is something another friend showed me the other day and it's this....!

So, what's the Name We discovered?

Exchange With Friends

We did go ahead and a earlier in today We spend our momentarily last financial budget (we do plan to buy groceries and tobacco) to buy/register these domain names (from the registry, not from a domain broker) 😊

If you would register ExchangeWithFriends it could become:

ExchangeWithFriends® Business OS™

So, We forwarded these three domains: exchangewithfriends.com & exchangewithfriends.org & exchangewithfriends.org to Our Publivity™/Excellentor™ Page at <https://community.business> for the time being. When we checked forwarding was not active yet.

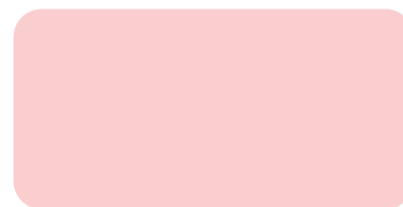

We also created a Logoldea for it (without ® / ™ )

Do you like it, Allison?

Exchange_With_Friends.svg

Exchange_With_Friends.png

Allison, you there?

So you are informed too, Alison, We just sent emails to Mehrdad, Alireza, Support, hi & info at selldone.dot.com:

That's different to have in the Footer of your site, Agree?

There was no response from Allison until this moment, so we decided to send it by mail. (She probably already forwarded it to you )

We realise this is a VERY SPECIAL NAME and again a BIG SURPRISE to find that the mentioned 3 domain names were unoccupied.

We also bought a subscription at Selldone, for evaluation to begin with. We told Allison We may move unitedholland.com, community.business, social.news & communitybusiness.news into a new integrated Site, however the Footer of the Page: Selldone... it's just NOT Experiencing Elegance.

A NAME & APPROACH with Us, would change that. We do appreciate some of the work you've done (from what we noticed )

So, We are interested in partnering with the owners of Niomatic, if you choose 'Exchange With Friends' instead of Selldone as NAME for your Business OS™.

Also, to become Elegant.Partners™ of UNITED HOLLAND (which is Invite Only).

And that Niomatic with Us, designs & integrates Community System: COMMUNITY.BUSINESS™ into their Business OS™.

You probably already realised that momentarily We have (access to) SPIRITUAL INTELLIGENCE, however that financially We could use a funding Partner.

We have a mission to roll-out Our in 2023 Invented Community System: COMMUNITY.BUSINESS™ and for that We need an IT-/Transaction System.

Initially, which is not off the table, We approached IT companies: Capgemini, Accenture, SAP & Tata Consultancy Services, to build it from the ground up, so to say... However, it may Very Well be integrated within your Business OS.

We some read the article about 'shoe painting'. However, they may do that in their garage, or other work room and that may let to be desired concerning Social contact.

You probably read about CommunityWorkshop.Pro™ and wouldn't it be WONDERFUL if these People have a Workshop to gather and work on their own designs?

If you would Partner with Us, since We do not have directly available Big financial resources, We ask a Fair fee for Excellentor™ Course Membership, which includes Publivity™ Membership.

Does this sound like an Elegant & Fair Conceptual Proposal to you at this moment?

If yes:

You can (try to) contact Us at: +31-630042146 (personal cell phone).

(if for some reason(s) no, what would you change in this Proposal? )

You can (try to) contact Us at: +31-630042146 (personal cell phone).

So, Allison, now you may be updated too about this Story ■

update: Just sent via email to same recipients:

Hi,

Some thing that We were inspired by is this:

A.I. (artificial intelligence) may fetch some of that 'wartime'-date (The World is not completely at PEACE yet, agree) and find that there was a lot of selling going on.

So, A.I. may come up with 'clever' ways to improve selling.

S.I. (SPIRITUAL INTELLIGENCE) does not fetch from 'wartime'-data and finds HUMANE things to improve of which selling, more than that Exchanges, is part of.

So, an Exchange With Friends may not lead to a sale, however may it for HEAVEN'R SAKE LEAD TO PEACE!!!!!!

CHEERS,

EMELINE

COMMUNITY.BUSINESS (Company)

EMELINE, instead of EMILINE (correction, typo ■ )

Did you know my house mate turned 77 biol. years old yesterday and my biol. mom may enter her 70th year in tomorrow, she would turn 69. unitedholland.com was (by me unplanned) registered by me in 7-7-'07 ±12:12am. Was inspired in the evening before to check if unitedholland.com was available for registration.

Internationally, these birthdays are connected in today 19 March. House mate (18-3) biol. mom (20-3). Have not spend much time with other people in biol.physical Universe in the last years (mainly interactions with FRIENDS/Friends IN THE SPIRIT), however Alex and Gerdi na Maria Johanna are some of the few People We've been in contact with. So, a Special Time these days. ■

Actually, it's Alexander ■ Short version ■

We did have SEVERE OPPOSITION from IN THE SPIRIT too... Some had investigated Us for more than 10 years, however that has all been CLEARED and lately it's only been asking for attention if something could use an update at unitedholland.com and at <https://COMMUNITY.BUSINESS>. Did you know Lilian Saimoen, a Dear Lady Friend I've not In Person seen since 1985 (as mentioned at community.business) in August 2023, IN THE SPIRIT, for the first time she could remember had no audiences as a Queen. They couldn't find anything that let to be desired concerning COMMUNITY.BUSINESS. Term: Community System was added later. We've had COMMUNITY.BUSINESS installed IN THE SYSTEM IN THE SPIRIT as HIGH as POSSIBLE by THE COMPUTER IN THE SPIRIT and We were told it was a SYSTEM EVOLUTION. ■

We Invented (WITH INSPIRATION) and so were given Community System: COMMUNITY.BUSINESS in Our 50th Biol. Year, which was Our Jubilee Year. So, We had no Clients since 1st Sole-Proprietorship Business in 1997-1998, which also ended in 1998 and in 2018 We started Our 2nd Sole-Proprietor Business and up until now, UNITED HOLLAND was started as Our 17th Sole-Proprietor Business and Our 18th may be Our 1st B.V. (Private Company) or perhaps even an N.V. (Public Limited Company), however, if so, We do plan to keep majority of SHARES.

So, there were no Clients since in 1998. A B.V even an N.V. is something we consider if there are Clients and enough reason to do so.

So, We've been 'Hobbying Some'. And We Journey On.

Hey Michael

Hey Allison, as you may be aware, We've cancelled Our Account at selldone.com | It was about something We found in a blog at selldone.com... it mentioned: "your great arrogant goal". It was under: What is the Selldone prospect? link: <https://selldone.com/blog/selldone-master-plan-its-just-the-start-of-the-new-ecommerce-platform-generation-31> | arrogant among things implies: foolish and more than that unwise

more than that: unwise.

Is this an unlucky chosen word?, to use that word: arrogant? We cancelled Our Account, because We didn't agree with that, Allison, and especially Mehrdad & Alireza. ***

Allison, Request (if you didn't so already) to forward this Remark to Alireza & Mehrdad. Thanks, Michael 'EMELINE' Roeten.

Update for you Allison, perhaps Alireza will let you know, or Mehrdad...:

We think that instead of 'arrogant' what was meant was another wording 'intentionally beneficial', so: "... your great intentionally beneficial goals.". Also wrote some about Community, what an African person may do with it, if it would be an 'ExchangeWithFriends' site, with Store as well.

'ExchangeWithFriends' Site

Have you been extremely busy today as well, Allison?

Regarding Our earlier Chat, does being happy let some to be desired, concerning that We shared Our Chat some at <https://community.business> - So, what ... you think Amsterdam is beautiful and from the relative short period We (YEJO(ÿNNE) and Me: YOVI(ËNNE) SOUL-Members of EMELINE, not Our other 4 SOUL-Members... they were in Advanced Realistic Dream State at that time) really thought Copenhagen was very attractive ;

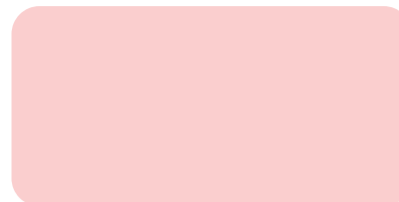

"Grass may seem greener at the next door neighbours"

neighbours (correction)

We intend to share that later at <https://community.business> too. You may like to respond, so will try to wait a while before we do that. Dinner awaits. ■

Hi Allison, Mehrdad & Alireza,

If you are interested, let us know, ok?
Friendlyn Business OS™
Footer of Page:
a Friendlyn site

Didn't notice that Allison is not at this chat momentarily. Hi there ■

Friendlyn with a 'y' (Friendly with a 'why') people may say: why Friendlyn... and so the saga continues

(Friendlyn with a ' why') (correction)

Why Friendlyn? (correction)

For example, not saying it momentarily is ■

Friendlyn is a Business Operating System
a Business OS

An evolved approach to Business, with Fairness & Equality. It has an eloquent Store functionality, however it's a new approach, evolved I believe, to Commerce in a NATURAL, HUMAN Way.

Friendlyn with a 'y' 'why, literally and figuratively.. y as the letter y and w-h-y as questions or at least a question you may have....

If speaker and listener communicate in English, which Main Market is US/Canada... perhaps some Europe too... yes, of course... that's what you began with as buying market

Friendlyn is for Exchange With Friends ■

Friendlyn is for Exchanges with Friends
(we hold exchangeswithfriends.com/.org/.uk too)

Sorry to hear that. I think that implies to passion and as you have mentioned it shouldn't be arrogant because it has a negative meaning. Thank for reporting that.

Allison sent this ok... notify when changed, into for example: "...your great passionate goals."?

Passion is behind the entire article

I thought it was really strange that that word 'arrogant' was used, where elsewhere Fairness & Equality was mentioned. However, just getting to some know you.

Thanks for that
